

Read and be prepared to share your book information when school starts. Participants will earn extra credit for completed pamphlets or CCPL Summer Reading printouts from their Reading/Language Arts teacher. Due Sept.22

Benjamin Stoddert GR. 7
Middle School
2017 Summer Reading Challenge

Now give this book a

Title: _____

Author: _____

XX

Pick any one middle school appropriate, book for your summer reading and record your notes inside this brochure. OR participate in the Charles County Public Library Summer Reading Challenge using Beanstack and turn in a printout of your summer reading.

Below are some reading suggestions. An (*) indicates that copies may be checked out at the school front desk during the summer.

Phenomenal Novels for 7th Grade

- * Money Hungry - Sharon Flake
- Four Secrets* - Margaret Willey
- After Tupac and D Foster* - Jaqueline Woodson
- Powerless* - Matthew Cody

Amazing Informational Texts for 7th Grade

- The Boy on the Wooden Box* - Leon Leyson
- Life in Motion: An Unlikely Ballerina* - Misty Copeland
- Flesh and Blood So Cheap; The Triangle Fire and It's Legacy* - Albert Marrin
- Can I See Your I.D.?—Chris Barton

Enjoyable and Challenging Books for 7th Grade

- * The Samurai's Tale - Erik C. Haugaard
- * Stargirl - Jerri Spinelli
- * Petey - Ben Mikaelson
- * The Wednesday Wars - Gary D. Schmidt

We firmly believe in hooking students on reading by offering them a variety of choices. Parental guidance is advisable when helping your child choose a book that will be engaging and appropriate.**

If your book is Fiction

While reading, jot notes below about the following elements:

Vivid Setting Details

Main Character: Personality and Motivation

Types of Conflicts

Theme and Lesson Learned

If your book is Nonfiction

While reading, jot notes below about the following elements:

Author's Purpose or Message

Important Details

Intended Audience

Some Key Words and Definitions
