THOMAS EDWARD KURTZ MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

A gifted achiever who always strived for perfection, a motivated competitor, a leader, and an inspiration with a sense of humor- Tom Kurtz was all of these. He was an honors student at Lackey High School whose quest for learning and discovery was never-ending. At the time of his death, he was a candidate for admission at several major Universities. Tom was also a dedicated, talented athlete who held leadership positions on the school newspaper staff and in many school activities. His desire for higher learning and academic excellence, coupled with his competitive spirit, has prompted the Kurtz family to establish the Thomas Edward Kurtz Memorial Scholarship to honor young people who exemplify the fine qualities he possessed.
